 )

The report of the Criminal Rules Video-Conference Advisory Committee dated June 17, 2009, has been heretofore submitted.

Included as Appendix A to the Committee’s report were “Proposed amendments to Rule 1.6.” By this Notice of Erratum, the proposed text of Rule 1.6, sub-section (e), in Appendix A is corrected to read as follows:

“e. Proceedings Allowed upon Stipulation. Except for those proceedings described in subsections (c) and (d), the parties, with the court’s approval, may agree by written stipulation or upon the record to allow the defendant’s appearance at a proceeding by an interactive audiovisual system. Before accepting the stipulation or agreement, the court shall find that the defendant knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily agrees to appear at the proceeding by an interactive audiovisual system.” [The correction is underlined.]
