RULES OF FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE

Rule 47. Motions for Temporary Orders.

(a) Motions for Pre-Decree Temporary Orders. A party seeking temporary orders for legal decision-making, parenting time, placement, visitation, child support, or spousal maintenance, or concerning property, debt, or attorney fees, must file a separate verified motion that states the motion's legal and jurisdictional basis and the specific relief requested. The motion must be filed either after or concurrently with the initial petition. The motion must include the following information and documentation, if relevant:

(1) – (4) [No change]

(b)–(k) [No change]

Rule 47.2. Motions for Post-Decree Temporary Legal Decision-Making, Parenting Time, Placement, Visitation, or Child Support Orders

(a) Generally. A party requesting temporary legal decision-making, parenting time, placement, visitation, or child support after entry of a decree must file a verified motion stating the legal and jurisdictional bases for the motion, and the specific relief requested. The motion must include a proposed parenting plan containing the legal decision-making and parenting time requested for both parties. If the motion requests child support, the party requesting child support must comply with Rule 91.1. The motion must incorporate by reference the relevant allegations of the pending post-decree petition and not separately repeat them.

(b)–(e) [No change]
