ORDER AMENDING RULES 49, 51, 91, 91.1, 91.2, 91.3, 91.4, 91.5, 91.6, 91.7, AND 92,
RULES OF FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE

On January 10, 2024, the State Bar of Arizona petitioned the Court to amend Rules 91(m) and 91.1(c), Rules of Family Law Procedure ("RFLP"), by creating a standard disclosure deadline of 30 days after service of the petition unless superseded by an agreement between the parties or a court order. The petition was distributed for public comment, during which the Committee on Family Court ("COFC") filed a comment requesting that the Court refer the issue to it for further review and recommendation.

At its August 2024 Rules Agenda, the Court continued this matter to the August 2025 Rules Agenda and further ordered that the matter "will be referred to the [COFC] for further review and for a recommendation to this Court." On June 13, 2025, the COFC filed a comment stating that it had reviewed the petition, obtained stakeholder input, and voted to approve the filing of a comment proposing revisions to Rules 49, 51, 91, 91.1, 91.2,

91.3, 91.4, 91.5, 91.6, 91.7, and 92, RFLP. Following its 2025 Rules Agenda, the Court again circulated the matter for public comment. The State Bar's Family Law and Practice Committee ("FLPC") met to discuss the changes proposed by COFC. After deliberation, the FLPC decided to propose a further revision to Rule 49 but to support all the other amendments as proposed by COFC. Upon consideration,

IT IS ORDERED that Rules 49, 51, 91, 91.1, 91.2, 91.3, 91.4, 91.5, 91.6, 91.7 and 92, are amended in accordance with the attachment to this order, effective January 1, 2026.

Paragraph (j) of Rule 91 and paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 92 include amendments to those provisions approved this date in a related matter, R-23-0008, and are presented here because those amendments overlap amendments to Rules 91 and 92 adopted in connection with this petition.

DATED this 26th day of November, 2025.

RULES OF FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE

Rule 49. Disclosure

(a) Generally.

(1) [No change]

(2) Scope. This rule applies to all actions other than those addressed by Rules 91 through 92. A party must disclose information in the party's possession and control, as well as information that party can determine or acquire by reasonable inquiry and investigation.

(3) [No change]

(b)–(c) [No change]

(d) [No change]

(1) [No change]

(2) for each parent and child, the name and address of each treatment provider and period of treatment involving ~~any party~~ that parent and/or child for psychiatric or psychological issues, anger management, substance abuse, or domestic violence, occurring within 5 years before the petition's filing;

(3)–(4) [No change]

(5) relevant documents and information regarding any relevant statutory factor.

(e) [No change]

(f) Spousal Maintenance and Attorney Fees and Costs. If either party has requested an award of spousal maintenance or an award of attorney fees and costs, the following documents must be served on the other party with the initial disclosure:

(1) a completed AFI substantially in the form set forth in Form 2, Rule 97; ~~and~~

(2) the documents and information described in subpart (e)(2); and

(3) relevant documents and information regarding any relevant statutory factor.

(g)–(j) [No change]

(k) Disclosure of Electronically Stored Information.

(1) [No change]

(2) Presumptive Form of Production. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise, a party must produce electronically stored information in the form requested by the receiving party. If the receiving party does not specify a form, the producing party may produce the electronically stored information in native form or in another reasonably usable form that will enable the receiving party to have the same ability as the producing party to access, search, and display the information including metadata ~~as the producing party~~.

(3)–(4) [No change]

~~(l) No Filing of Disclosures. The disclosures described in sections (d) through (k) must be served on all parties but may not be filed with the court.~~ Disclosure of Exhibits. A party must disclose evidence, documents, or electronically stored information that the disclosing party plans to use at a hearing, including any material to be used for impeachment.

~~(m) Additional Discovery. Nothing in this rule precludes a party from conducting additional discovery under Rule 51.~~ No Filing of Disclosures. The disclosures described in sections (d) through (k) must be served on all parties but may not be filed with the court.

(n) Additional Discovery. Nothing in this rule precludes a party from conducting additional discovery under Rule 51.

Rule 51. General Provisions Governing Discovery

(a) [No change]

(b) Discovery Scope and Limits. Unless the court orders otherwise in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) Generally.

(A) Scope. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit. Information within this scope of discovery need not be admissible in evidence to be discoverable. Written discovery to a party may not request information that party is required to disclose under Rules 49 or 91 through 92. Disputes concerning the adequacy of disclosure must be presented as required by Rule 65.

(B) [No change]

(2)–(3) [No change]

(4) Expert Discovery.

(A) Deposition of an Expert Who May Testify. A party may depose any person who has been disclosed as an expert witness under Rule 49, 91, or 92.

(B)-(C) [No change]

(5) [No change]

(c)-(f) [No change]

Rule 91. Modification or Enforcement of Judgment

(a)-(i) [No change]

(j) Manner and Timing of Service. The applicant must serve the petition, and every order, warrant, and affidavit in support of the petition, on all other parties in the manner required under Rules 40(f)(1) or 41, as applicable. The applicant must make good faith efforts to complete service promptly and within 10 days after the receipt of the issued order to appear but must complete service in no event later than 5 days before an initial conference and if no initial conference is scheduled, no later than 20 days before the hearing for a petition under Rule 91.5, and in no event later than 40 days before the hearing for a petition under Rules 91.1 through 91.4 or 91.6 through 91.7.

(k)-(l) [No change]

(m) Disclosure. In any proceeding under Rule 91 or Rules 91.1 through 91.7, each party must ~~comply with Rule 49~~ disclose information in the party's possession and control, as well as information that the party can determine or acquire by reasonable inquiry and investigation.

(1) Timing of Initial Disclosure. Each party must serve an initial disclosure. The following deadlines for initial disclosures apply, unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed upon in writing by the parties:

(A) For a petition under Rules 91.1 through 91.4 and 91.6 through 91.7, if the court sets an evidentiary hearing within 60 days of service of the petition, each party must serve its initial disclosure within the earlier of 30 days after service of the petition or 5 days before the evidentiary hearing.

(B) For a petition under Rules 91.1 through 91.4 and 91.6 through 91.7, if the court does not set an evidentiary hearing within 60 days of service of the petition, each party must serve its initial disclosure within 30 days after service of a petition.

(C) For a petition under Rule 91.5, each party must serve its initial disclosure within the earlier of 15 days after service of the petition or 5 days before the evidentiary hearing. ~~within the time established by the court at the conference or hearing or as agreed by the parties.~~

(2) Specific Disclosure Obligations. Each party must disclose the relevant documents and information provided in Rules 91.1 through 91.7, as applicable. In addition, for any petition under Rule 91 through 91.7, a party must disclose:

(A) Disclosure of Exhibits. Evidence, documents, or electronically stored information that the disclosing party plans to use at a hearing, including any material to be used for impeachment.

(B) Disclosure of Witnesses. The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of any witness whom the disclosing party expects to call at an evidentiary hearing, along with a statement fairly describing the substance of each witness's expected testimony.

(C) Disclosure of Expert Witnesses. The name, address and telephone number of any person the party expects to call as an expert witness at trial. The party also must disclose the subject matter on which the expert will testify, the substance of the facts and opinions on which the expert will testify, a summary of the grounds for each opinion, the expert's qualifications, and the name and address of any custodian of reports the expert prepared.

(D) Disclosure of Electronically Stored Information. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise,

(i) Production of Electronically Stored Information. Within 20 days after serving its initial disclosure statement, a party must produce the electronically stored information identified under Rules 91 through 91.7. Absent good cause as found by the court, no party need produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(ii) Presumptive Form of Production. A party must produce electronically stored information in the form requested by the receiving party. If the receiving party does not specify a form, the producing party may produce the electronically stored information in native form or in another reasonably usable form that will enable the receiving party to have the same ability as the producing party to access, search, and display the information including metadata.

(iii) Limits on Disclosure of Electronically Stored Information. Civil Rule 26(b)(2) applies to the disclosure of electronically stored information.

(iv) Resolution of Disputes. If the parties are unable to satisfactorily resolve any dispute regarding electronically stored information, the parties may present the dispute to the court in either a joint or individual motion. The motion must include the parties' positions and a good faith consultation certificate under Rule 9(c). In resolving any dispute regarding electronically stored information, the court may shift costs, if appropriate.

(3) Proof of a Party's Income from All Sources. When Rules 91.1 through 91.7 require disclosure of proof of a party's income from all sources, disclosure must include the following documents and information:

(A) complete tax returns, W-2 forms, 1099 forms, and K-1 forms, for the past 3 completed calendar years, and year-end information for the most recent calendar year if tax returns are not yet due;

(B) information for the current calendar year for all income sources, including year-to-date pay stubs, salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, self-employment income, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, income from businesses and properties, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits, worker's compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, recurring gifts, prizes, and spousal maintenance;

(C) proof of court-ordered child support and spousal maintenance actually being paid by the party in any case other than the one in which disclosure is being provided;

(D) proof of all medical, dental, and vision insurance premiums paid by the party for any child listed or referenced in the petition;

(E) proof of any child care expenses paid by the party for any child listed or referenced in the petition;

(F) proof of any expenses paid by the party for private or special schools or other particular education needs of a child listed or referenced in the petition; and

(G) proof of any expenses paid by the party for the special needs of a gifted child or a child with a disability who is listed or referenced in the petition.

(4) Disclosure When Attorney's Fees are Requested. If an award of attorney's fees is requested, an Affidavit of Financial Information in compliance with Rule 91(g), and proof of a party's income from all sources.

(5) No Filing of Disclosures. The disclosures described in Rule 91 or Rules 91.1 through 91.7, must be served on all parties but may not be filed with the court.

(6) Continuing Duty to Disclose. The duty of disclosure prescribed in Rules 91 through 91.7 is a continuing duty, and each party must serve additional or amended disclosures when new or additional information is discovered or revealed. A party must serve such additional or amended disclosures in a timely manner, but in no event more than 30 days after the information is revealed to or discovered by the disclosing party. If the information is disclosed in a written discovery response or a deposition in a manner that reasonably informs all parties of the information, the information need not be presented in a supplemental disclosure statement.

(7) Deadline for Final Supplemental Disclosure. Each party must provide its final supplemental disclosure by the applicable deadline below, unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed upon in writing by the parties:

(A) For a petition under Rules 91.1 through 91.4 and 91.6 through 91.7, if the court sets an evidentiary hearing within 60 days of service of the petition, each party must serve its final supplemental disclosure by no later than 5 days before the evidentiary hearing.

(B) For a petition under Rules 91.1 through 91.4 and 91.6 through 91.7, if the court does not set an evidentiary hearing within 60 days of service of the petition, each party must serve its final supplemental disclosure by no later than 30 days before the evidentiary hearing.

(C) For a petition under Rule 91.5, each party must serve its final supplemental disclosure by no later than 5 days of the evidentiary hearing.

A party seeking to use information, exhibit, witness, or expert witness that it first disclosed beyond the applicable deadline must obtain leave of court to extend the time for disclosure as provided in Rule 65(c).

(8) Failure to Disclose, False or Misleading Disclosure, Untimely Disclosure. A party prejudiced by a failure to disclose, false or misleading disclosure, or untimely disclosure, may seek the remedies identified in Rule 65.

~~(n) Attorney Fees, Costs, and Expenses.~~ In any post-judgment proceeding in which an award of attorney fees, costs, and expenses is an issue, both parties must file and exchange a completed Affidavit of Financial Information at the time established by the court, but not later than in compliance with Rule 76.1(b) submittals. Discovery. Nothing in this rule precludes a party from conducting discovery under Rule 51.

(5) relevant documents and information regarding any relevant statutory factor.

(ed) Hearing. Under A.R.S. § 25-414, within 25 days of service of the petition, the court must hold a hearing or conference before a judge, commissioner, or person appointed by the court to review noncompliance with a visitation or parenting time order. The court must rule on the petition no later than 21 days after the hearing or conference is concluded.

Rule 91.6. Orders that Affect Parenting Orders

(a) Petition. If a limited jurisdiction court issues a harassment injunction and the order affects a party's parenting rights in a legal decision-making or parenting time order issued by a court of this state, the affected party may petition for relief from the order under this rule in the family court cause number. The petition must comply with Rule 91, must state that relief is requested under this rule, and must state the details demonstrating that the injunction affects the party's parenting rights.

(b) Disclosure. Unless otherwise specifically ordered by the court, no disclosures are required before the hearing.

(c) Hearing. If the superior court finds that the harassment injunction is affecting the party's parenting rights in a legal decision-making or parenting time order, the superior court may:

~~(a)~~(1) direct the limited jurisdiction court to transfer the order to the superior court under a superior court cause number;

~~(b)~~(2) join any third party who is a party to the injunction to the proceeding in the superior court but only in a newly assigned cause number and not as a party in the family court case;

~~(c)~~(3) schedule a concurrent proceeding between the matters;

~~(d)~~(4) direct that notice be provided to the third party of any hearing related to the harassment injunction;

~~(e)~~(5) conduct such proceedings as necessary to reconcile the orders; or

~~(f)~~(6) modify the orders as deemed appropriate.

Rule 91.7. Other Post-Judgment Petitions

(a) Petition. A party seeking any other post-judgment relief not specifically addressed in Rule 91 or Rules 91.1 through 91.6 must file a petition in compliance with Rule 91 that states detailed facts supporting the requested relief; and the specific legal authority that permits the court to grant the relief requested.

(b) Disclosure. The court—on motion or on its own—may impose additional disclosure obligations of relevant information, witnesses, and exhibits.

Rule 92. Civil Contempt and Sanctions for Non-Compliance with a Court Order

(a) [No change]

(b) Petition, Service, ~~and~~ Notice, and Disclosure.

(1)–(3) [No change]

(4) Disclosure. The court—on motion or on its own—may impose disclosure obligations of relevant information, witnesses, and exhibits.

(c) Order to Appear. The order to appear must specify the date, time, and place of ~~the~~ an initial conference or evidentiary hearing, and must contain the following notice using substantially the following language:

Failure to appear at the hearing may result in the court issuing a child support or civil warrant for your arrest. If you are arrested, you may be held in jail for up to 24 hours before you see a judge.

(d) Conference and Hearing. The court:

(1) at the initial conference, may inquire as to whether service has been effectuated and, in the court's discretion, schedule an evidentiary hearing. The court may make any additional orders that the court finds appropriate to ensure a timely resolution of the petition.

(2) At the evidentiary hearing on the petition, ~~the court~~ must make an express finding whether the alleged contemnor had notice of the petition and order to appear. The court also must also determine whether the party who filed the petition has established that:

(A) ~~1~~ the court entered a prior order;

(B) ~~2~~ the alleged contemnor had notice of the prior order; and

(C) ~~3~~ the alleged contemnor failed to comply with the order.

(e)–(g) [No change]
