Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure

Rule 26.11. A Court's Duty After Pronouncing Sentence

(a) Disclosures. After pronouncing judgment and sentence, the court must:

(1) inform the defendant:

(A) of the right to appeal the judgment, sentence, or both;

(B) of the right to seek post-conviction relief; ~~and~~

(C) that the failure to file a timely notice of appeal or timely notice of post-conviction relief will result in the loss of those rights; and

(D) of the right to apply to have the judgment of conviction set aside, except as provided in A.R.S. § 13-907(K).

(2) advise that:

(A) if the defendant is indigent, as defined in Rule 6.1(b), the court will appoint counsel to represent the defendant on appeal; ~~and~~

(B) if the defendant is unable to pay for certified copies of the record on appeal and a certified transcript, the county will provide them; and

(3) advise that the defendant may waive the right to appellate counsel by filing a written notice no later than 30 days after filing the notice of appeal.

(b) Written Notice. [No changes]

Rule 29. ~~Restoring Civil Rights or Vacating~~ Setting Aside a Conviction

Rule 29.1. Grounds; Notice

(a) Generally. A person who has completed probation or a sentence may ~~ask to restore civil rights, to withdraw a plea of guilty or no contest, or apply in writing to the court~~ to set aside a conviction under A.R.S. § 13-907. The probation officer, or the court if there is no probation officer, must provide a person with written notice of this opportunity before the person's absolute discharge at the time of sentencing.

(b) Sex Trafficking Victims. Under A.R.S. § 13-907.01, a sex trafficking victim may ~~request the sentencing~~ apply in writing to the court to vacate the victim's conviction under A.R.S. § 13-3214, or a city or town ordinance that has the same or substantially similar elements, if the offense was committed before July 24, 2014.

Rule 29.2. Application

- (a) Contents. An application under this rule must include the applicant's name, address, date of birth, and signature, the offenses for which the applicant was convicted, the place and date of conviction, the sentence imposed, a statement about the status of victim restitution payment and other court-ordered monetary obligations, and the relief the applicant is requesting. The applicant must attach to the application any documents and affidavits required by law and may attach other supporting documents and affidavits.
- (b) Place of Filing and Filing Fee. The applicant must file an application with the court ~~specified by law that sentenced the applicant~~. The ~~court clerk~~ may not charge a fee for filing or docketing an application.
- (c) Processing of Application. ~~The court having jurisdiction must process the application. It must send a copy of the application to the applicable prosecuting agency no later than 10 days after filing and, if it concerns a felony conviction, to the Attorney General.~~
- (d) Victim Notification. The victim has the right to be present and be heard at any proceeding in which the defendant has filed an application to have a judgment of conviction set aside. If the victim requested postconviction notice, the prosecuting agency must provide the victim with notice of the defendant's application and of the rights provided to the victim. The prosecuting agency must provide notice to the victim of the opportunity to be heard if the victim requested post-conviction notification.

Rule 29.3. Hearing Date

~~The court must set a date for hearing the application that is at least 30 days after the application is filed.~~

Rule 29.429.3. State's Response

~~At least 10 days before the hearing, No later than 60 days after the application is filed, the State and victim may file a written response stating any their reasons for opposing the application, if any. The State must send a copy of the response to the applicant's attorney or the applicant, if unrepresented. If the State does not oppose the application or does not timely respond, the court may grant the application without a hearing and may enter an order vacating the conviction.~~

Rule 29.4. Reply

The applicant may file a reply but must do so no later than 15 days after the State's response is filed.

Rule 29.5. Hearing

On either party's request or on its own motion, the court may set a hearing. The hearing must be held no later than 120 days after the application's filing unless the court finds good cause for an extension. The prosecuting agency must provide post-conviction victim notice of the hearing date and the right to be heard, if the victim requested post-conviction notification.

Rule ~~29.5~~29.6. Disposition

(a) Considerations. In determining whether to grant an application, the court must consider the following factors:

- (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense the conviction is based on;
- (2) the applicant's compliance with the conditions of probation, the sentence imposed, and the Department of Corrections' rules or regulations, if applicable;
- (3) any earlier or later convictions;
- (4) the victim's input and the status of victim restitution, if any;
- (5) the time that has elapsed since the completion of the applicant's sentence;
- (6) the applicant's age at the time of conviction; and
- (7) any other factor relevant to the application.

(b) Denial. If the court denies an application, its order must state the reasons for the denial in writing and on the record.

(c) Subsequent Application. If an application is denied, the applicant may file a new application after satisfying all requirements or after resolving any other reason for denial.

(d) Order. The clerk must transmit the order to the applicant, the prosecutor, and the Department of Public Safety.

Rule ~~29.6~~29.7. Special Provisions for Sex Trafficking Victims

(a) Confidentiality. [No changes]

(b) ~~The Order's Transmission~~ Order. The clerk must transmit a copy of an the order vacating the conviction of a sex trafficking victim to the arresting agency, the prosecuting agency, the Department of Public Safety, and the ~~victim~~ applicant.

[new] Rule 30. Restoring Civil Rights

Rule 30.1. Grounds; Notice

(a) Automatic Restoration for First Offense. A person who has not previously been convicted of any other felony must automatically be restored any civil rights that were lost or suspended by the conviction, except the right to possess or carry a gun or firearm, if the person:

- (1) completes a term of probation or receives an absolute discharge from imprisonment; and
- (2) pays any fine or restitution imposed.

(b) Second or Subsequent Offense. A person who has been convicted of 2 or more felonies and whose period of probation has been completed or has received an absolute discharge from imprisonment may have any civil rights that were lost or suspended by the conviction restored by the court. A person whose civil rights were lost or suspended by 2 or more felony convictions in a United States District Court may apply to the superior court in the county in which the person now resides to have the person's civil rights restored.

(c) Gun or Firearm Rights. To restore the right to possess or carry a gun or firearm the person must file an application under Rule 30.2. The following persons may not file to restore the right to possess a gun or firearm:

- (1) a person convicted of a dangerous offense under A.R.S. § 13-704;
- (2) a person convicted of a serious offense as defined in A.R.S. § 13-706 until 10 years from the date of discharge from probation or from the date of absolute discharge from prison; or
- (3) a person convicted of any other felony offense until 2 years from the person's discharge from probation or absolute discharge from prison.

Rule 30.2. Application

(a) Contents. An application under this rule must include the applicant's name, address, date of birth, and signature, the offenses for which the applicant was convicted, the place and date of conviction, the sentence imposed, the status of victim restitution payment and other court-ordered monetary obligations, and the relief the applicant is requesting. The applicant must attach to the application any documents and affidavits required by law and may attach other supporting documents and affidavits.

(b) Place of Filing and Filing Fee. The applicant must file an application with the court that sentenced the applicant. An applicant who was convicted in a United States District Court may apply for restoration of rights in the superior court in the county where the person now resides. The clerk may not charge a fee for filing an application.

(c) Processing of Application. The court must send a copy of the application to the applicable prosecuting agency no later than 10 days of filing.

(d) Victim Notification. The victim has the right to be present and be heard at any proceeding in which the defendant has filed an application to have civil rights restored. If the victim in a state court matter has requested post-conviction notice, the prosecuting agency must provide the victim with notice of the defendant's application and the rights provided to the victim. The prosecuting agency must provide notice to the victim of the opportunity to be heard if the victim requested post-conviction notification.

Rule 30.3. State's Response

Within 60 days after the application is filed, the State and victim may file a written response stating their reasons for opposing the application, if any. The State must send a copy of the response to the applicant's attorney or the applicant, if unrepresented.

Rule 30.4. Reply

The applicant may file a reply but must do so no later than 15 days after the State's response is filed.

Rule 30.5. Hearing

On either party's request or on its own, the court may set a hearing. A hearing must be held no later than 120 days after the application's filing, unless the court finds good cause for an extension. The prosecuting agency must provide post-conviction victim notice of the hearing date and the right to be present and heard if the victim requested post-conviction notification.

Rule 30.6. Disposition

(a) Considerations. Whether to restore civil rights shall be in the discretion of the superior court judge.

(b) Additional Considerations for Applications Filed Under A.R.S. § 13-925. On the petition's filing the court must set a hearing. At the hearing, the person must present psychological or psychiatric evidence in support of the petition. The State must provide the court with the person's criminal history records, if any. The court must receive evidence on and consider the following before granting or denying a petition filed by a prohibited possessor under A.R.S. § 13-925:

(1) the circumstances that resulted in the person being a prohibited possessor as defined in A.R.S. § 13-3101(A)(7)(a), or subject to 18 U.S.C. § 922(d)(4) or (g)(4);

(2) the person's record, including the person's mental health record and criminal history record, if any;

(3) the person's reputation based on character witness statements, testimony, or other character evidence;

(4) whether the person is a danger to self or others or has persistent, acute, or grave disabilities or whether the circumstances that led to the original order, adjudication, or finding remain in effect;

(5) any change in the person's condition or circumstances that is relevant to the relief sought; and

(6) any other evidence deemed admissible by the court.

(c) Burden of Proof. The petitioner must prove by clear and convincing evidence the following:

(1) the petitioner is not likely to act in a manner that is dangerous to public safety; and

(2) granting the requested relief is not contrary to the public interest.

(d) Court Findings. At the hearing's conclusion, the court must issue findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(e) Denial. If the court denies an application, its order must state the reasons for the denial in writing, including any statutory requirements the applicant has not met.

(f) Subsequent Application. If an application is denied, the defendant may file a new application after satisfying all requirements or after resolving any other reason for denial.

(g) Order. The clerk must transmit the order to the applicant, the prosecutor, and the Department of Public Safety. If the order is a result of an application filed under A.R.S. § 13-925, a copy of the order must be provided to the Supreme Court and the Department of Public Safety. The Supreme Court and the Department of Public Safety must update, correct, modify, or remove the person's record in any database available to the national instant criminal background check system. Within 10 court days after receiving the notification from the court, the Department of Public Safety must notify the United States Attorney General that the person no longer falls within the provisions of A.R.S. § 13-3101(A)(7)(a) or 18 U.S.C. § 922(d)(4) or (g)(4).
