BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

IN THE MATTER OF PETITION TO AMEND RULE OF THE SUPREME COURT, RULE 122	Supreme Court No. R-07-0016 Supplement To Comments Of The Pima County Bar Association And Request For Public Hearing Regarding Petition to Amend the Rules of the Supreme Court Rule 122
--	--

The Pima County Bar Association, hereby supplements the comment filed on May 14, 2008 addressing the Petition to Amend Rule 122 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, filed on November 1, 2007.

The Pima County Bar Association respectfully requests a public hearing be set pursuant to Rule 28 (F). It is submitted that a hearing would be helpful in light of the importance of any change to Rule 122. This request is made based on the far reaching effects on the trial court, parties, witnesses and victims of allowing cameras in the courtroom for every trial or hearing except if substantial harm could be shown.

The possible results of the adoption of Rule 122 on the administration of justice and the effective management of a trial or hearing are areas of concern and it is submitted that a public hearing would be beneficial to the consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted this 20th day of May, 2008.
